SELLS SEVENTEEN MILLION POUNDS OF 1909 CROP FOR 7 CENTS

Imperial Tobacco Company Buys 13,000,000 Pounds And Gallagher 4,000,000.

SEVEN MILLION OF WEED POUNDS UNSOLD
Buyers Yet To Enter Market And They Will Likely Purchase In A Few Days.

CHRISTMAS MONEY FOR THE FARMERS.

Henderson, Ky., Nov. 24.—The Executive Committee of the Smoking District Association sold 17,000,000 pounds of the 1909 crop of tobacco here today at seven cents.

The sale was effected after negotiating with the buyers for a considerable time who declined to give eight cents. It was necessary for the county committees to meet and decide for themselves what to do, and the action of the executive committee in selling the tobacco followed.

The sale means that there will be a vast volume of money turned loose in the five counties for the members of the association.

DR. BYRON W. KING'S GREAT LECTURE.

"The World Is a Stage"---The Greatest Lecture Ever Delivered In Marion.

Dr. Byron W. King, of Pittsburgh, as was announced through the columns of the Record-Press, delivered his famous lecture "The World Is a Stage" at the School Auditorium Saturday night.

On account of the seeming high price of admission, there was not a full house to greet him, but the goodly number that did turn out enjoyed every word that fell from this great man's lips.

At a quarter past eight o'clock Dr. King was briefly introduced by Prof. J. P. King and for just two hours he held his hearers spell bound. During portions of his great lecture, there would scarcely be an eye undimmed by tears and yet, the next moment he would have every face in smiles. There was not a man or woman that heard him that would not give twice the amount to hear him again. Should he ever have prevailed on to visit Marion again the largest house will not hold the people.

To Prof. J. P. King is due the credit for this much appreciated treat, as he at no little expense and trouble, secured the date for him. Dr. King left Sunday morning for Evansville, where, in a crowded house he delivered one of his great Crittenden, Henderson, Webster, Hopkins and Union, who considered the proposition whether to sell at less than eight cents or prize.

The sale was effected after negotiating with the buyers for a considerable time who declined to give eight cents. It was necessary for the county committees to meet and decide for themselves what to do, and the action of the executive committee in selling the tobacco followed.

The sale means that there will be a vast volume of money turned loose in the five counties for the members of the association.

JOHN MITCHELL, the labor leader and President of the United Mine Workers of America, at the age of thirty-three headed an army of 150,000 men in the great coal strike, the greatest labor struggle in history. His calmness, coolness, self-posse, courage and steaming honesty carried him bravely and unflinching through a fierce fight.

He had to meet on the one hand, millionaire mine-owners safely entrenched behind the ramparts of their wealth, and able to stand a long siege; on the other hand the members of the union itself, thousands of whom were ignorant foreigners whose passions might in a moment convert them into a mob; vain, envious, self-seeking orators and delegates looking for spoils; and scheming, tricky, ambitious leaders even in the councils. Between the millionaires and the miners was the world of industry clamoring for coal to keep the wheels of trade moving.

With remarkable strength and to his personal credit, Mr. Mitchell kept a clear mind and a cool head in a severely testing crisis. He was born in Bradwood, Ill., the son of a miner, in 1879, and at the age of four was left an orphan under the care of his stepmother. His school training was slight, for at thirteen he was picking coal at the mines; but he studied at night and became interested in economic questions and at sixteen joined the Knights of Labor. For five years he traveled in the West, working his way from one mine to another, earning enough to keep him and broadening his mind by a larger outlook on life and a closer study of labor problems in a practical, personal way. These years of experience made an excellent training for the larger future of the young champion of labor.

In 1895 he became Secretary-Treasurer of a district organization of the United Mine Workers, and rapidly rose from one post of honor to another until he became President in 1899, the membership of the Union increasing from 41,000 to over 300,000 in four years and winning great victories in increased wages, shorter hours and other concessions for its members.

Mr. Mitchell is a man of such wonderful executive ability, such shrewd business sagacity and so magnetic in his strong personality that he could readily earn more than his present salary of $1400 a year were he to enter the business world. He has stood loyally and steadfastly by all contracts with Capital, feeling that the one basis of the strength of organized labor must be its respect for the sacredness of the contracts and agreements, which honor, not law, must make them fulfil in their battles with organized capital.

MISS PEARL DOSS MEETS FEARFUL DEATH

Her Clothing Ignited While She Was Standing With Her Back to the Fire.

TOGETHER AFTER LAPSE OF OVER FIFTY YEARS

A Happy Reunion of the Cannan Family At Home of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Cannan.

When the news was flashed over the wires last Wednesday evening from Madisonville that Miss Pearl Doss was fatally burned, it cast a gloom over the whole town, and deeper still their grief when, a few hours later, a message was received from her loving father, who had left here on receipt of the first message, that sweet, loving Pearl was dead. What a shock to her relatives and numberless friends! Miss Pearl had left Marion on Tuesday to spend a couple of days with her sister, Mrs. T. E. Hearn at Madisonville, and on the following day, Wednesday, while in the best of health and happy as the birds singing their sweet songs about her, standing before the grate with her back to it, a puff of wind caused the flames to reach out, igniting her clothing, when almost instantly her whole body was wrapped in flames that, with all that could be done, were not extinguished until she was so badly burned that death came as a relief in but a few hours.

Miss Pearl had planned to come home Thanksgiving morning on the early train, so as to enjoy the day at home with her friends, and many of them were to meet her at the depot, and did—great hosts of them—but what a sad meeting to that planned but a few days before, when she kissed many of them good bye with happy expectations of a long, bright future and a speedy home-coming. The great number of her friends, gathered at the depot on Thanksgiving morning, with hearts heavy with grief, eyes blinded with tears and great wreaths of beautiful flowers, gave but a faint idea of how she was loved by those who had known her. She was a sweet, lovable girl, the youngest of six children and the first to be taken. She was idolized by her father, who is prostrated from grief at the sudden and terrible manner in which she was taken from him.

Her pastor, Rev. J. B. Adams, who was conducting a meeting at Sturgis, came home to conduct the funeral services, which were held at 1:30 p. m. at the Methodist church on Friday, after which the last beautiful tribute was paid her memory at the beautiful Marion cemetery, when, in the presence of hundreds and hundreds of eyes streaming with tears, the beautiful white casket was lowered forever from the sight and her sweet spirit committed to the God who gave it.

The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The grief stricken father and his family have the deep, heartfelt sympathy of the whole town and community.

David B. Fobs returned Monday from Louisville, where he attended the Equitable Life Insurance Society Kentucky convention. Mr. Fobs returned by the way of Evansville, where he had Dr. M. Rardin successfully treat his ears.

At the residence of Mr. K. E. Cannan, of this city, the only survivors of a large family were gathered together for the first time in fifty-four years.

Only five now remain of the family: Jessie Cannan, of Chanute, Kansas, who is 77 years old; K. E. Cannan, of this city 73 years old; Elijah Cannan, of Ringwood, Okla., 69 years old; G. W. Cannan, 65 years old and Mrs. Barbara Woody, of Mattoon, Ky., 59 years old.

At this hospitable home around a well prepared table, genuine thanks were uttered to God by whose Providence they were once more permitted to meet, talk, offer thanks and refresh themselves.

Others present at this happy feast were Mesdames L. E. Cannan, G. W. Cannan, Ada Sturdivant, and son, John, of Cincinnati, Iowa, (daughter and grand son of Jessie Cannan,) A. S. Cannan and family, W. D. Cannan and family, C. B. Woody and P. C. Stevens.

On Friday the four brothers drove to Shady Grove Cemetery, where their mother was buried, and thence to the Smith Cemetery, about five miles from Shady Grove, where their father was buried. Here, after the grave was cleaned and frost earth put upon it, song and prayer, they returned to Marion.

On Sunday all met again at the home of Mrs. Woody, near Mattoon, where they spent the day. Here a host of other relatives were gathered, including Mack Stevenson, of Madisonville Ky., and Dan Fox and wife of Shady Grove. Here again, after doing justice to a sumptuous dinner, many were the reminiscences, hearty laughs, intermingled with tears.

Such an occasion as this rarely occurs, and this we feel to know, will never be repeated by this happy band until they meet around the great White Throne of God in the land of endless day.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING

Rev. James P. Price has just closed a fine meeting at Liberty church in Logan county Presbytery. This is a good church situated in a community of fine people. The music was excellent. Everybody would say, "Oh! isn't the singing fine!" It was an old time revival. All the country was mightily stirred by the spirit of God. Many old timers would stand up in the congregation and say, "I want you to pray for me." The Christians were a noble band of faithful workers. Between thirty and forty made profession of faith; quite a number of young men and several men of families. The entire country caught the revival flame of the meeting. The attendance was good the whole time.

THIRTY DEATHS ARE TOLL OF FOOTBALL

Radical Changes in Rules Demanded to Make the Game Safer.

FOOTBALL'S CASUALTIES.

Year.	Deaths.	Injuries.
1901	7	54
1902	15	106
1903	14	63
1904	14	296
1905	21	200
1906	14	160
1907	15	160
1908	11	304
1909	30	216

According to the figures to date, there have been thirty deaths, traceable to football, during the season which opened the middle of September, and which is not yet over. There have been 216 injuries.

This is an increase in fatalities of about 200 per cent, over 1908. It and Whooping Cough get quick is probable that the result of many deaths will be the entire reform of the football game, eliminating entirely mass plays, in which most of the injuries were sustained, by the inter-collegiate football rules committee.

There is a general demand for legislation for the sort which will make football a safer, saner game, or else abolish the sport. Coach Stagg, of Chicago University, will embody the ideas of the West in his address at the rules committee meeting in December.

In the discussion of improvement of the inland waterways of the United States, the fact that the old time policy of sporadic appropriations for specific objects, not regarding the river nor the value of the stream when improved, is especially noticeable. The reason, though obvious, was not given its just weight in the times when appropriations for waterway improvements went by favor and were looked upon in the light of fads, useful in the days preceding nominations rather than useful to trade and commerce. The proposition that all inland waterways equally of improvement and with tonnage bearing capacity when improved, are component parts of one magnificent system of transportation, each bearing its constituent part to the comprehensive whole, and with each to receive the attention of the government of the United States in the time and with complete and effective consideration in the adoption of the platform of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress—"A Policy; not a Project."

The policy of inland waterway improvement is now in the stage when unity of action on behalf of the adoption of the Policy and the trade and commercial interests of the country pushed forward by the irresistible force of development are now as a unit in appreciation of the fact that the inland waterway is the natural avenue between shipper and receiver and that, when improved, development can proceed on unhampered lines with freight congestions avoured and communication between producer and a market always open. Moreover, all sections of the United States are united on the axiom that abandonment of the Project, will command success. There is no longer question of the value of the improved inland waterway to the trade and commercial interests of the United States. That value is appreciated—and appreciated at a great cost of shipper and receiver—on the Pacific Coast no less than on the Atlantic. New England, with her manufacturing interests, appreciates the inestimable value of the inland waterway improved no less than the value is appreciated in the cotton and rice and the sugar fields of the South, now supplemented by the wonderful industrial development of that section. The belt of manufacturing and mining states extending from the Delaware, crossing the mountains and stretching through to the Mississippi, appreciates the value—and across the Mississippi is the great West stretching to the foothills of the Rockies.

All sections, and all parts of sections of the country, with each State of the forty-six having its especial treasure of mine, field or factory, are now as one in the demand for the adoption of that comprehensive platform—"A Policy; not a Project."

The unity of desire is conceded. The supplemental force is unity of action. For that reason the absolute importance of each and every section of the Union, and each and every trade and commercial organization being adequately represented at the Sixth Annual Session of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, at the New Willard, Washington, December 8th, 9th and 10th, cannot be too strongly nor too persistently urged. That Congress will mark the beginning of the end of delay and dissatisfied demands. The day of the Policy, with a comprehensive system of improvement of the inland waterways and the ending of the disastrous freight congestions will follow and be permanent.

More than 150,000,000 pounds of cigar tobacco and nearly four times that quantity of other types of tobacco was grown in the United States in 1908, according to a bulletin issued by the Department of Agriculture at Washington.

Kentucky leads all the states in tobacco grown, producing more than one-third of the crop of the country and about one ninth of the entire crop of the world. The prouder we should be of Kentucky. And the way to keep her in the lead is to keep on growing tobacco, and of a quality that will bar competition from other states. But if the growers keep on wrangling the crop will diminish until other states will be induced to try their hand.

The total sales of the Stemming District tobacco crop to date is:

To the Imperial, 13,000,000
To Gallaher Limited, 4,500,000
To John H. Hodge, 4,500,000
To the American, 1,000,000

A total of twenty three million pounds and the 1909 crop nearly exhausted.

MARRIAGES

Clement—Hill.

Thanksgiving eve at 7:30 o'clock at Chapel Hill church, Mr. Herman Hill and Miss Willie Clement were united in marriage in the presence of a large audience of friends and relatives. Rev. A. J. Thompson officiating.

The bride was beautiful in a cream silk princess, while the groom wore the conventional black.

As the beautiful notes of the wedding march commenced, the bride marched up the aisle followed by her maid of honor Miss Ruth Hill. Then came the bride groom with his friend Raymond Fox as the best man.

They marched to the Altar which was beautifully decorated with an arch of evergreens and flowers.

The ceremony was very beautiful and impressive.

After the ceremony they marched down the aisle to the strains of the wedding march and with a select few of their friends repaired to the home of the bride's mother, where the wedding breakfast awaited them and the next day the bridal party went to the home of the bride groom's parents, where a sumptuous dinner had been prepared for them and the day was enjoyed by all who were present.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents.

The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mrs. Essie Clement and is one of the county's best teachers.

The bride groom is the youngest son of Mr. Tom Hill and is a prosperous young farmer. Best wishes for a long and happy married life.

Jones—Sutton.

Mr. George W. Sutton and Mrs. E. R. Jones were married at the home of the bride by Rev. W. T. Oakley on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the presence of a number of friends. Mr. Alva Brown and Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Miss Lucy Bradford were the attendants.

Both of the contracting parties are among the most popular people of Crayne.

Wilson—Hughes.

On last Friday evening, Nov. 26th, Mr. M. L. Wilson and Miss Birdie Hughes, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at Weston church, Rev. O. D. Spence officiating.

The groom is the son of R. E. Wilson, of this community, and is a handsome and enterprising young man. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Hughes, of Weston, and is a very attractive young lady.

A large number of their friends and relatives were present to congratulate and wish them a long, happy and prosperous voyage through life.

"Mr. W. L. McCoy, one of the best farmers of the county, was in the city yesterday with a gigantic turkey-red turnip grown at his place on the Providence road. It weighs eight pounds and a half and is splendidly formed. Mr. McCoy presented The Observer which was duly appreciated."

A Card of Thanks.

In this, the greatest grief that I feel could possibly have been visited on me and mine I desire from the depths of a broken and bleeding heart to thank, as they so richly deserve, the great number of friends who so beautifully and lovingly contributed in the attempt to lighten our burden, in their care of our pre-ious daughter Pearl, the youngest of the flock and first to be called by the Master. To her friends and mine, young and old, let me say that it is impossible for me to find words to properly thank you for the many lovely and precious tributes to her memory. Nor do we want to forget the friends at Madisonville for their many kindnesses.

The world seems dark indeed to me without her, but the thought that so many loved her besides my own self greatly comforts me.

ish self, helps to console me.
Again let me, with all my heart, soul, mind and strength, say thank you my friends, thank you.

Yours truly,
C. E. Doss and family.

ASSOCIATION HAS REDUCED TOBACCO SUPPLYS FOR SALE

About 5,000,000 Pounds Less On Market This Year---Buyers Refuse To Pay The Eight Cents Price.

COMMITTEE WAS FIRM AND PREPARES TO PRIZE

The Action May Not Prove Final As Another Appointment Was Made For This City Next Tuesday.

(By JAMES BANKS.)

For three days, beginning last Thursday, the buyers representing the Imperial, the American, the Regis, Gallaher Limited, and also buyers representing other manufacturing companies, have been inspecting samples of Association tobacco drawn from the 1909 crop grown in the counties of Crittenden, Union, Webster, Hopkins and Henderson. Buyers have been here from Owensboro, Madisonville, Hopkinsville, supplemented, as it were, to the home buyers. With these, or with several of these, the district committee has been in conference. And in consequence the committee is pretty accurately advised of the requirements of each and all. There is only pooled to the Association this year, or say to state it in another way, the Association will have, as a close approximation, only twenty-six million pounds of tobacco of the 1909 crop for sale. I say "only" the Association sold and is a close one million eight hundred and eighty thousand pounds of the 1908 crop. Of the 1908 to date, 1909 crop, nine hundred heads have been sold and thirty five hundred heads remain unsold. After a brief respite, turn we again to the 1909 crop.

"Advice of our requirements," said the buyers to the committee,

"make known to us your price." "The price is eight cents," answered the committee, "the same fixed by our members in magisterial district meetings."

"We can't give eight cents," answered the buyers.

"Then it is up to the Association to prize," responded the committee.

So much of the conference I have chosen to report in dialogue form for the sake of condensation—vouching for the essential accuracy of the same. Recognizing the limitations of the powers of the committee the buyers made no bids.

"Is this, then, a finality?" Members will ask.

Members may judge for themselves when I tell them the committee has an appointment to meet the buyers in this city again next Tuesday afternoon. From which it would seem neither party regards the conference just closed as a finality.

It is only logical to conjecture the committee have gone home, each to his several counties, to learn if members are of the same mind and resolution as to price as when the Magisterial meetings were held.

The committee is only concerned to loyally carry out the wishes of the members—only desire to act in accord with the will of a majority of the members.

Within the next few days we shall see what we shall see.

REMARKABLE WOMAN LIVING IN MORGANFIELD.

Great Society Favorite in Washington City During Youth.—93 Years Old.

Perhaps but few people living in Morganfield and Union county know that here in Morganfield resides one of the most remarkable ladies of the United States, a lady who is seen to walk about our streets and almost every week of the year going from house to house calling upon and conversing with her friends. Many people know her, though but few are informed as to her remarkable career. Her name is Mrs. Letitia Bristow, who has for some time lived with Mr. H. L. Jones and family, of this city. She is now ninety-three years old and is as spry as many ladies who has not lived half her years.

She is well educated and very entertaining and delights in telling of her girlhood days, says the Morganfield Post.

WHEN A YOUNG LADY.

She was a great society favorite in Washington City during the administration of President Tyler and other presidents of that period. She has heard many of the greatest orators in the nation in their famous speeches which included the speech which made Henry Clay famous.

She tells of her stage coach journeys from Washington to Kentucky, Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans and other points West.

ENJOYS FINE HEALTH.

Mrs. Bristow is enjoying the very best of health and never takes medicine. She walks through the streets of Morganfield to any part of the city to visit friends and says she enjoys the out-door exercise. She is a great reader, spending considerable time reading present day literature.—Madisonville Hustler.

This remarkable woman is the aunt of Mrs. Hortense (Calmes) Jones, of Morganfield, of N. E. Calmes, Editor of the Record-Press of Marion and Ben Bristow, one of the most highly honored men of President Grant's cabinet. She is now visiting old friends in Hopkinsville near where she was born.

HORSE DROWNED NEAR BACUSBURG

H. F. HAMMACK OF THIS CITY AND BEN SMITH, A DRIVER, BARELY ESCAPE.

Team and Hack Plunge Into Muddy Waters Of a Swollen Stream.

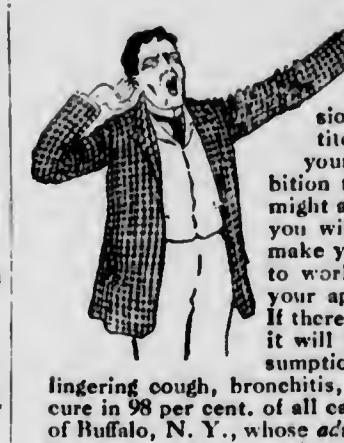

H. F. Hammack, of Marion, Ky., traveling salesman for an Evansville Hardware house, and Ben Smith, a driver for Willett's stable of Mayfield, had a harrowing escape from being drowned Monday afternoon near Backusburg following the heavy rain on that day.

They were driving two horses to a light drummer's hack and were unable to cross a creek. A farmer, realizing their predicament agreed to pilot them through his field where the stream was navigable. All went well and they had crossed the water and started up the embankment when one of the horses balked, causing the vehicle to roll back into the water. The team fell and sank in the deep water and the hack was capsized throwing the baggage out.

One of the horses was rescued by hard and faithful work while the other animal could not be extricated from the swift and muddy waters and was drowned. The baggage was saved except a grip containing two fine gold watches and other valuable articles, which was swept away by the waters. Messrs. Hammack and Smith got soaking wet and also had a close call from meeting death in the manner of the horse.

Tuesday the hack and dead horse were pulled out from the creek, the waters having subsided sufficiently to allow them to do so. Hammack and Smith left Wednesday morning to finish their trip.

Do You Feel This Way?

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at night unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to forge ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your lazy liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a lingering cough, bronchitis, or bleeding at the lungs, it will bring about a cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come with his wide experience and varied practice.

Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good." Dr. Pierce's medicines are of known composition. Their every ingredient printed on their wrappers. Made from roots without alcohol. Contain no habit-forming drugs. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

If You Have it Read This Letter.
Haynes & Taylor Guarantee
Mi-o-na.

"I was taken last August with a severe stomach trouble. The doctor said it was nervous dyspepsia. He gave me medicine for that. I took his treatment four weeks, didn't feel any better at the end of four weeks than I did when I commenced taking his medicine. I took everything I heard of. The first day of December, 1908, I got a box of Mi-o-na tablets. I took them that afternoon and the next day, haven't had one bit of pain in my stomach since the 2nd of December. I took five boxes. Feel well now, sleep good—that is something I haven't done for a number of years"—Mrs. M. E. Maxfield, R. F. D. 9, Avoca, N. Y., June 9, 1909.

Mi-o-na in the form of a tablet is the best prescription for indigestion written.

It relieves after dinner distress, belching of gas, foul breath, heartburn, etc., in five minutes.

It is guaranteed by Haynes & Taylor to permanently cure indigestion, acute or chronic, or any disease of the stomach, or money back.

Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggistis everywhere, and in Marion by Haynes & Taylor at 50 cents a large box. Test sample free from Booth's Mi-o-na, Buffalo, N. Y. 216

THE DEVIL'S HARNESS

How to Make It—A Warning to Boys.

For a "bit" use a cigarette.

For a "head-stall" use whiskey, which, when taken into the stomach, naturally flies to the head, and it is also the leading article that leads the animal head foremost.

For a "sureingle" use bad literature, all round.

For a "side lines" use cards.

For a "collar" use anything that will choke down the truth.

For a "backing strap," something that will do business on a big scale.

For "breaching" have a 32 or 48 And now, says Satan, what for a "check?" "Mother's apron strings," says one of his servants.

"Capital," says Satan. "Speak those words in a crowd and the boy will break away from his environment. The cigarette will stake out the way. The whiskey will add to his fun and hasten him onward. The cards will still increase his fun and double his speed. 'No harm to play,' one of his companions says. Bad literature and the 48 do the rest and the boy is 'geared up' in the 'devil's harness.'

Satan's servants manufacture, deal in and deliver material for making the "harness," all for the money, the love of which, the Bible tells us, is the root of all evil.

Satan's servants also help to put on the harness. They, in fact, do all the outside work. His Majesty himself working in the heart and preparing a warm reception for him at the end of the journey. It is also understood by His Majesty's self that his servants will likewise share in the same warm reception when their work is finished.

Editorial note—The above article is from the pen of a blind man, who is a resident of Crittenden county.

CHAPEL HILL.

Bro. Thompson has just closed his twenty-seventh annual meeting at Chapel Hill church. The meeting resulted in a wonderful revival.

There was interest almost from the first service to the close. Though the weather was somewhat inclement, nothing seemed to hinder the interest of the meeting. There was 15 conversions, 10 additions to the church and five children baptized.

Eight of these who were converted were men. The church and community were never so stirred over religious matters before. Bro. Thompson is the only pastor this church has ever had, this being his twenty-seventh year with the church.

The meeting just closed lasted 12 days and during that time and the two days following he preached 24 sermons, made 25 pastoral visits, received 10 into the church, baptized three children, married two couples, rode 50 miles on horseback and in buggies, about 250 miles on the train—to say nothing of the miles he traveled afoot—had no ministerial help in the meeting and was 60 years old September 1.

One of the prettiest weddings that was ever seen in this "neck at the woods" occurred Wednesday evening 7:30 at in Chapel Hill church, which had been simply but beautifully decorated for the purpose. The couple stood under an arch of cedar on the rostrum and were married by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Thompson, in the presence of a large congregation.

The contracting parties were Mr. Herman H. Hill and Miss Willie Clement, the attendants being Mr. Raymond Fox and Miss Ruth Hill.

The bride was beautifully dressed in cream-colored silk, while the groom was enshrouded in a handsome suit of black of approved texture and latest cut. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Essie Clement, her father being the late Charles Clement, and is a very attractive young lady. She is organist at our church, teacher of our public school, is active in church and Sunday school work and is exceedingly pretty and popular. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Hill and is a splendid young man, a farmer by profession and a general favorite among the young people of his section. They have the best wishes of the entire community.

Miss Linnie McMurry, of Sturgis, came over to visit her aunt, Mrs. Essie Clement, and to attend the wedding.

We are having fine weather and the wheat crop of this precinct is looking like we are good for a big unit or two.

James Fowler is adding to the appearance of his residence by building a new yard fence.

Mrs. A. J. Thompson, Kutawa, has been visiting friends and relatives in this precinct the past week or two.

J. T. Bigham purchased something fine in the way of a milk cow Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock from Scott Paris.

Rev. M. L. Dyer At Marion.
Sunday morning at 11 o'clock,

Rev. M. L. Dyer, of Sturgis, filled the pulpit at the M. E. church in the place of Rev. J. B. Adams, our regular pastor, who for two weeks past, has been in a great revival meeting in Sturgis. Bro. Dyer preached a splendid sermon and had a crowded house to hear him.

Money Comes In Bunches

to A. A. Chisholm, of Treadwell, N. Y., now. His reason is well worth reading: "For a long time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness and general debility," he writes "I couldn't sleep had no appetite, nor ambition, grew weaker every day in spite of all medical treatment. Then used Electric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old-time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. It's a medicine." Infalible for Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Blood and Nerves. 50c. at Jas. H. Orme's and Haynes & Taylor.
